The classic red brick architecture, characterized by its curved walls, beautifully complements the timeless design of this Southwestern home. A brick archway welcomes you into the front courtyard, where you'll immediately be captivated by the mountain views from the wrap-around patio. This Miramar floor plan features a corner Beehive fireplace that embodies the essence of Southwest living. The efficient "U" shaped kitchen is designed for easy service to both the dining room and the eat-in breakfast nook. Abundant counter space and cabinetry are illuminated by a radiant skylight, bringing the kitchen to life.
