Its inviting stucco facade and Spanish arched entry enhance its curb appeal. Inside, the tumbled travertine flooring flows throughout in an attractive staggered pattern, adding elegance. The remodeled kitchen features granite countertops, along with a modern sink and faucet, all designed for both functionality and visual appeal. Natural light filters through plantation shutters, creating a soothing atmosphere enhanced by soft, neutral paint colors. The updated Jack and Jill bathroom offers a true retreat, complete with a custom-tiled shower and a luxurious vessel sink. In the cozy family room, rustic pine siding and a wood stove provide warmth, while skylights allow for adjustable lighting. Outside, you'll enjoy a large covered pergola with some view of the mountains to the East. The backyard presents endless possibilities for future expansion. Additionally, residents have access to Green Valley Recreation facilities, including pools and fitness
