This home has great curb appeal with multiple rooflines highlighted by a striking gabled alcove that immediately captures your attention. Your experience begins the moment you step through elegant double doors and into a contemporary masterpiece filled with light, warmth, and thoughtful design. Expansive view windows frame the open family room, where rich wood flooring and a welcoming gas fireplace create the perfect setting for both lively gatherings and quiet evenings. The kitchen shines with clean stainless-steel appliances, lustrous dark granite countertops, and an impressive prep-cook island ideal for entertaining. Just beyond, a charming breakfast nook--surrounded by additional cabinetry and inspiring views--invites you to linger over morning coffee. The open wall dining area sits perfectly between the living and family rooms, offering a seamless flow that enhances the home's airy, unpartitioned layout. The peaceful living room continues this sense of connection, opening effortlessly to the wrap-around patio through glass sliders. A private den provides the perfect workspace, complete with an executive built-in desk and upper cabinetry. When it's time to unwind, retreat to the spacious owner's suite featuring wood flooring, elegant bay windows, and room to truly relax. The primary bath features dual vanities separated by a
