Gorgeous views are an understatement! Everyone dreams of having such a view, though it only comes along once in a while. The vibrant hues of the sky at sunset provide a continually changing visual experience that you will enjoy every day. This Santa Fe-style home boasts distinctive stepped parapet rooflines and features a double wooden gate that enhances its authentic Southwestern ambience. The great room serves as a central gathering space, with a fireplace and numerous niches for art and media, creating an inviting atmosphere for social gatherings. The efficient kitchen, which includes a serving counter, opens to the dining area, allowing for seamless interaction with guests during meal preparation. Additionally, the home's split-bedroom layout ensures privacy for visitors. Located within the gated community known as "The Springs," the property offers access to a one-mile walking trail, perfect for enjoying the natural desert landscape during morning strolls. Furthermore, the home is conveniently situated just one block from one of the esteemed Green Valley Recreation Centers, which provides amenities such as a clay studio, arts league, computer club, and camera club. Call this "home" and relax and savor the remarkable views while enjoying a tranquil lifestyle!
