This home is located on a dream lot with stunning views and endless desert vistas stretching across the wide-open range, with the Santa Rita Mountains providing a scenic backdrop. Upon entering the townhome, one is immediately struck by the exquisite Saltillo tile flooring that reflects the distinctive character of the Southwest. The landscaping efforts are enhanced by the presence of diverse desert vegetation in both the front and rear yards. The kitchen is enhanced by a brilliant skylight that illuminates the stainless steel appliances, while an eat-in nook offers convenience for enjoying lighter meals. The dining area seamlessly connects to a tranquil living room, which features patio doors that invite the stunning vistas indoors. Just step outside to extend the living space under the extended wood beam and post-covered patio adorned with Spanish Saltillo tile flooring. You will relish the experience of witnessing sunrises, sunsets, and a sky filled with stars every day - this home will warm your heart!
